

1147 Form: Assessing Level of Care

This training provides an overview of the Hawai'i Med-QUEST 1147 form and its use in assessing an individual's level of care and support needs. Participants will gain a better understanding of the nuts and bolts of the form, its purpose, and how it can inform care planning, decision-making, and Medicaid long-term care eligibility.

SEP 8

11:00 AM – 12:00 PM (HST)

Learning Objectives:

1. Articulate the purpose and identify key components of the 1147 form used to assess an individual's level of care.
2. Understand the criteria needed to determine level of care decisions and ability to complete and/or interpret the major sections of the 1147 form.
3. Recognize how the 1147 form can contribute to access to patient-centered, medically-appropriate care.

Desiree Mizuno, RN
*Associate Director,
Health Services
Advisory Group*

Register Here

1.0 credit hours for CNE, CME, CHES, & RD pending approval

Contact publichealthhui@hiphi.org for more information.

This project is supported by the Health Resources and Services Administration (HRSA) of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) under UB6HP27880 and Affordable Care Act (ACA) Public Health Training Centers. This information or content and conclusions are those of the author and should not be construed as the official position or policy of, nor should any endorsements be inferred by HRSA, HHS or the U.S. Government.

In support of improving patient care, this activity has been planned and implemented by Hawaii Public Health Training Hui, a program of Hawaii Public Health Institute, and the Western Region Public Health Training Center (WRPHTC). The WRPHTC is jointly accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE), and the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), to provide continuing education for the healthcare team

Hawai'i Dementia Initiative

WESTERN REGION
Public Health
Training Center

Professional Biography

Desiree Mizuno, RN

Desiree Mizuno is a Registered Nurse with over 25 years of experience in healthcare quality improvement, regulatory compliance, managed care, case management, long-term care, acute care, home health, mental health, and performance improvement. She currently serves as Associate Director at Health Services Advisory Group (HSAG), where she leads and oversees Peer Review Organization (PRO) activities, including Long-Term Care (LTC) assessment reviews and Pre-Admission Screening and Resident Review (PASRR) compliance reviews.

Prior to her current role, Ms. Mizuno served as a Senior Quality Improvement Manager at 'Ohana Health Plan where she led quality improvement initiatives focused on preventive health screenings and managed performance improvement projects to improve clinical processes and health outcomes. Her clinical experience includes case management for individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities at The Arc in Hawaii and direct patient care as a Registered Nurse at The Queen's Medical Center in both medical-surgical and mental health settings.

Ms. Mizuno earned a Bachelor of Science in Nursing from the University of Hawaii at Mānoa School of Nursing and also holds an Associate in Liberal Arts degree from Leeward Community College.